Purpose:

To define the guidelines for treatment of consumers by spiritual means.

Scope:

This procedure applies to all employees (including full-time employees, part-time employees, contractual providers, volunteers, students, and/or interns), of Huron Behavioral Health (HBH) programs, both direct and contracted.

Information:

Programs shall recognize and allow for consumer to receive treatment by spiritual means on request by consumer, guardian, or parent of a minor consumer.

Procedure:

1. The Right to Treatment by Spiritual Means includes the right of consumers, guardians, or parents of a minor to refuse medication or other treatment on spiritual grounds if:
 - Spiritual treatment predates the current allegations of mental illness or disability
 - No court order empowering the guardian or facility to make those decisions
 - The recipient is not imminently dangerous to self or others
2. Huron Behavioral Health does not provide treatment by spiritual means. Opportunity for contact with agencies providing treatment by spiritual means shall be provided in the same manner as consumers are permitted to see private physicians/other mental health professionals.
3. The right to treatment by spiritual means does NOT include the right:
 - To use mechanical devices or chemical or organic compounds which are physically harmful
 - To engage in activity prohibited by law
 - To engage in activity which physically harms the consumer or others
 - To engage in an activity which is inconsistent with court ordered custody or voluntary placement by a person other than the consumer
4. Consumers shall not be required or coerced to participate in any religious observance.
5. Minors shall be afforded the opportunity to participate in religious services and other religious activities in accordance with their individual and family preferences.
6. When requested and to the extent feasible, the programs shall assist consumers in locating and gaining access to religious services and ministrations suited to individual beliefs.
7. Community religious representatives shall be allowed to visit their parishioners during times arranged with providers which do not disrupt program activities for other participants.
8. Recourse to court proceedings is available when there is refusal of medication or other treatment for a minor.
9. Notice shall be given to the requesting person of a denial of a request and the reasons for the denial.
10. Provision for administrative review or appeal of denial of treatment by spiritual means will be at the option of the person requesting treatment.
11. Requests for printed, recorded, or visual material essential or related to treatment by spiritual means, and to a symbolic object or similar significance shall be honored and made available at the recipient's
