Information:

POLICY:

- It is the policy of HBH to assist consumers with placement in the least restrictive setting.
- Freedom of movement shall not be restricted more than is necessary, to provide mental health services, to prevent injury to the resident or others, to prevent substantial property damage except that security precautions appropriate to the condition and circumstances of an individual admitted by order of a criminal court or transferred as a sentence-serving convict from a penal institution may be taken.

Procedure:

1. Freedom of movement is restricted or limited only by general restrictions in a residential setting's house rules, which may include the following:
 - a. Areas that could impair the effective functioning of the residential setting based on criteria such as:
 - Age (e.g., minor restrictions versus adult restrictions)
 - Sex (e.g., women's and men's rest rooms)
 - Physical condition (e.g., wheelchairs, crutches)
 - b. Threat of homicide or felonious assault
 - c. Areas that could cause safety or security problems

 - g. Access to areas within boundaries like fences, etc.
 - h. Purpose and description (e.g., doctor's examination rooms for efficient functioning)
2. Residents and their guardians shall be informed of their right to freedom of movement and any restriction or limitation of this right. Verification of this explanation shall be entered into the clinical case record. The resident and guardian shall also receive a copy of the residential setting's restrictions.
3. A resident shall not be subject to a setting, which increases restraint on personal liberty unless, documented in the clinical record in an Individual Plan of Service (IPOS).
4. General restrictions applicable to all residents or groups of residents, governing access to grounds, buildings, or other areas shall be documented in a residential setting's house rules.
5. An individual's IPOS and their progress notes shall contain justification whenever residents move to a more restrictive setting.
6. A consumer will not be transferred to a more restrictive setting unless necessary to prevent injury to him or her
